Privacy Policy

- Stein Financial Limited (SFL) makes a commitment to protecting your privacy and promises only to use information collected about you in accordance with the Data Protection Act 1998 and the European Directive on Privacy and Electronic Communications (2002/58/EC)
- When you register with our website, we may ask you for certain information and you may submit personal data to SFL (for example your name, phone number, postal address, email address, contact and certain financial information). We may also record which products you are interested in and which links you pursue as well as customer traffic patterns and site use. This information will be kept securely in accordance with our internal security policy and may be used to:
 - Process your application and provide you with an up to date, efficient and reliable service.
- By submitting your data you agree to this use.
- We will never collect sensitive information about you without your explicit consent. An example of sensitive information would be your religion or a medical condition.
- You undertake that all information that you provide is accurate and current.
- SFL may use the information or parts of it to notify you about features and/or events or related activities that you may find useful.
- Third party providers using the site may access traffic usage patterns but your personal use or information will not be identifiable unless it is with specific regard to an order/application.
- Other than providing details to the insurers you apply through we will not directly pass on your details to any other third party company. The only exception being if SFL merge or are bought out by another related financial concern.
- If you do not want SFL to collect or process your personal data, please do not submit it and if you have or you believe that we have data about you that is incorrect please write to SFL at the address below and the information will be corrected as soon as possible or removed from our database as you request.

Cookies

- Cookies are a means by which information relating to your Internet activity (such as whether you have visited a SFL website before) is recorded on your hard drive and used by us to improve the SFL websites and the products and services available to you.
- If you do not wish for us to use cookies when you use this site please adjust your Internet browser settings to not accept cookies.
